

WEYERHAEUSER DONATING 10,000 TREES TO DETROIT COMMUNITY MEMBERS FOR FIRE RESTORATION

On Saturday, October 30, the city of Detroit, Ore., and Weyerhaeuser will host an event to support the community's fire restoration efforts following the Beachie Creek Fire last year. The Weyerhaeuser team is donating 10,000 Douglas-fir seedlings to community members affected by the 2020 wildfires, and Weyerhaeuser nursery professionals will also be on hand at Detroit City Park to provide live demonstrations and answer questions about planting and raising trees.

WHERE: Detroit City Park 05 S. Patton Rd., Detroit, OR 97342

WHEN: Saturday, October 30, 2021 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Though it could still take years to rebuild from the 2020 wildfires, Weyerhaeuser is taking active steps to help our communities recover through grant and supply donations and volunteer service.
